BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

States that the Comptroller has placed under objection the pay Mr. Tate drew for May 1912 & has directed the refund of Rs 35/ drawn in excess, & recommends that, in the circumstances explained, Mr. Tate may be permitted to draw the af. allowances permissible under the Codal rules.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

Subd. Mr. E.W.L. Tate, Chief Jailor of Mysore in the Rs 100-5-125 grade, was appointed Sub-Protem Chief Jailor of the Bangalore Central Jail on a pay of 150-5-175 during Mr. Nafavkar's employment in the Police force C & M. Station. Mr. Nafavkar was, however, permitted to revert to Mysore Service from 1.5.1912. He was ordered to do ~~but could not join~~ duty at Mysore, as chief Jailor of the Jail there, on his pay (Rs 175 + 25 p.a.) per month from the 6th July 1912. The period of 2 months & 5 days during which he was awaiting orders was ordered to be treated as privilege leave.

2) Mr. Tate who was ordered to work as Chief Jailer of the B.C. Jail on his pay of Rs 125/ acted for Mr. Nafavkar ~~for the~~ during this period & has drawn a pay of Rs 160/ for May 1912. But the Comptroller has taken objection to this on the score that by the transfer of Mr. Nafavkar to Mysore the pay of the posts of the Chief Jailers at Mysore & Bangalore is also changed & accordingly has directed the refund of the excess amount drawn. But it does not seem that this was ~~is not~~ the intention of Govt.

(Fris 1-12-2) ✓ ✗

3) The I.G. now represents that Mr. Tate was entitled to draw the maximum pay of his grade viz Rs 125/ long before Mr. Nafavkar was granted privilege leave & as he has been acting for 2 years in the new grade, he is entitled to a Salary of Rs 153/ a month during the period in question.

6) The question is what amount of Salary Mr. E.W.L. Tate is entitled to during the period from 1.5.'12 to 5.7.'12 in which Mr. Nagavakar was on reversion from ~~British~~ Foreign service was awaiting orders of Govt. & which period was ordered to be treated as privilege leave to the credit of Mr. Nagavakar.

7) Mr. Tate having been appointed as Chief Jailor, Bangalore Central Jail Sub protem (Pay 160-5-175) in June 1910, was on 1.5.'12 promoted to a salary 150+10 or Rs 160/- & drew his salary at this rate for the period in question. Comptroller rightly objects to this claim on the ground that Mr. Tate's pay on Mr. Nagavakar's reversion & on the transfer of Messrs. Tate & Nagavakar to Bangalore & Mysore Jails respectively on their own pay is his substantive pay proper and the fact that Mr. Nagavakar was treated as on privilege leave does not lead to a sub/prolem vacancy in order that Mr. Tate may be entitled to the higher sub prolem allowances.

8) The papers show that Dy. of Prisons was intimated in D.O's of 15th & 17th May 12 of Mr. Nagavaker's reversion as Chief Jailor, Bangalore, but that he should be asked to apply for privilege pending the ordering the Hon'ble the Resident on the result of enquiry into his conduct.

9) During the period in question, Mr. E. W. L. Tate continued as Chief Jailor, Bangalore & Mr. Chas. Tate as Chief Jailor Mysore & Mr. Nagavaker was on privilege leave and ultimately Messrs. Tate & Nagavaker were appointed as Chief Jailors of Bangalore & Mysore on their own substantive pay & Mr. Chas Tate was reverted to the Police Dept.

10) It is however a point for orders whether in view of the recommendation of the Dy. of Prisons the acting allowances of Mr. E. W. L. Tate should not for the period in question be fixed at his substantive pay Rs 125 + acting allowance 1/5 × 150 or Rs 155 p.m.

Financial Secretary to the Govt. of H.H.

the Maharaja of Mysore.

SIR,

Consequent on the services of Mr. R.S.Nagavkar, Chief Jailor, Central Jail, Bangalore, being placed at the disposal of the Hon'ble the British Resident in Mysore, for a period of 5 years, for employment in the Police Force of the Civil and Military Station, in pursuance of Government Order No.J.673-5/Pris.14-09-4 dated 2nd September 1909, Mr. E.W.L.Tate the then Jailor of the Mysore Jail was appointed Chief Jailor, Bangalore Central Jail, sub-protem, on Rs.150-5-175. as per Government Order No. J.1963-5/ Pris.25-09-5 dated 19th January 1910.

2. The above arrangement continued till Mr. Nagavkar's reversion to Mysore service with effect from 1st May 1912 and Mr. Nagavkar was placed in charge of the Mysore Jail as Jailor on the pay he was getting in the Central Jail, i.e. Rs.175/- plus Rs.25/- Personal allowance and Mr. E.W.L.Tate was directed to continue to be in charge of the Bangalore Central Jail on the pay he was drawing as Jailor of the Mysore Jail, as per Government Order No. J.3811-2/ Pris.48-11-7 dated 28th June 1912. As Mr. Tate was drawing Rs.115 per mensem at Mysore before he was posted to Bangalore Central Jail and considering that he had put in over 2 years' service after his

Recommends that Mr. E. W. L. Jabe, Chief Jailor, Bangalore Central Jail, be allowed to get the usual allowance for the period during which Mr. R. S. Nagarkar was considered to be on privilege leave.

GPB—500—10-9-12

transfer there, sanction was accorded by Government in their Order No. J.509-10/Pris.1-12-2 dated 16th August 1912 to draw his pay at Rs.125/- per mensem.

3. Mr. E.W.L.Tate drew his pay for the period of 2 months and 5 days from 1st May to 5th July 1912 at Rs.160/- per mensem as he had earned by then the 1st and 2nd increments, during which time Mr. Nagavkar was awaiting orders of Government (which were received in this office on 28-6-12) as to where he should go i.e. whether to do duty in the Bangalore Central Jail or at Mysore Jail.

4. The Comptroller has now taken objection (copies of correspondence in the matter is enclosed herein for favour of perusal) to the amount so drawn by Mr. Tate for the said period, construing the Government Order posting these officers to the Mysore and Bangalore Jails to have changed the scale of pay of the Chief Jailor of the Bangalore Central Jail and says that mere grant of leave to Mr. Nagavkar does not give a claim to Mr. E.W.L.Tate for acting allowances during the period of Mr. Nagavkar's absence on privilege leave which was sanctioned by Government in their Order No.J.1093-4/Pris.2-12-3 dated 12th October 1912.

5. Under the above circumstances and considering the onerous and responsible nature of the Chief Jailor's duties, I have the honor to recommend that though Mr. Tate may not be given pay at Rs.160/- per mensem for the said period of 2 months and 5 days, yet he may at least be allowed to get the acting allowance which the Codal rules may entitle him and to request that you will be so good as to obtain sanction of Government thereto and to instruct the Comptroller to withdraw the objection under reference.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant, be considered as having been on such leave as he was entitled to from 1st May to 5th July 1912. Though Mr. E.W.L.Tate therefore ceased to hold substantively Pro-tempore the appointment of Chief Jailor of this Jail from 1st May 1912, he is entitled to acting allowances during the above period.

Mr. Tate was, under G.O. No. J.509-10/Pris.1-12-2 dated the 16th August 1912, in the Rs.125/- stage of an appointment of Rs.100-5-125 and when appointed to act in an office the pay of which is Rs.150-5-175, he should be entitled to a salary of Rs.150/- in the first year and to Rs.155/- in the second and subsequent years under the provisions of article 83 c(ii) of the Mysore Service Regulations. As he was in the 3rd year of his acting tenure, he is entitled to a salary of Rs.155/- per mensem. Hence the excess drawn by him for June 1912 is only Rs.5/- which will be retrenched from the next issue of pay unless the Comptroller directs to the contrary in the meanwhile.

From 1st May 1912, the date on which Mr. Nagavkar reverted to the Mysore Service, the scale of pay of the Chief Jailor, Central Jail, Bangalore, has also been changed. Further the mere grant of leave to Mr. R.S.Nagavkar does not give a claim to Mr. E.W.L.Tate for acting allowances during the period of absence on privilege leave of the former. Hence the amount drawn in excess on behalf of Mr. E.W.L.Tate, Chief Jailor at Rs.35/- per mensem from 1st May 1912 should be recovered.

under the circumstances explained, Mr. Date may be permitted to draw the acting allowances permissible under the Codal rules.

Order thereon : No. J 3214-5.

Mr. R. S. Nafawkar reverted to Mysore Service on the 1st May 1912 but was granted privilege leave of absence for 2 months and 5 days and was afterwards posted to the Mysore Jail as Chief Jailer on his own pay viz Rs 175 + 25 p.a., Mr. Date continuing in the B. C. Jail on his Substantive pay [Rs 100-5-125] Mr. Date has drawn Rs 160/ as his pay for the month of May 1912; and the Comptroller has objected to this on the ground that the posting of Mr. Nafawkar for duty at Mysore amounts to a change in the scale of pay of the Chief Jailor's post of the B. C. Jail and that the mere grant of leave to him does not give a claim to Mr. Date for drawing acting allowances during the period of his absence on privilege leave. (8

It is clear that from the date of Mr. Nafavakar's reversion to the Mysore Service, the sub-protem tenure of Mr. Date's appointment in the B.C. Jail ceased & he had to revert to his former post of the Chief Jailer of Mysore. But he continued to work in the B.C. Jail, as Mr. Nafavkar was on privilege leave from 1st May 1912 and has latterly been ordered to work at Bangalore on his own Substantive pay of Rs 125/.

Govt. therefore, are of opinion, that during the period Mr. Date continued in the B.C. Jail after Mr. Nafavkar's reversion but absence on privilege leave, he could be appointed only to act in the place of the latter, and that the af. allowance, admissible under the rules
